

I. READING

Peter's hobby is playing music. He's a DJ. He plays music at parties and school discos. He's got 393 CDs, but he always wants more. He doesn't buy all his CDs from shops. He likes looking for interesting CDs at flea markets. Peter is 15 years old.

Sally is eleven. She has got an unusual hobby - it's collecting matchboxes. She's got 198 matchboxes. They are from all over the world. Her favourite matchbox is pink and white. It's from Russia. When her friends go on holiday, they bring back matchboxes for her.

Mike's hobby is reading comics. He has four different comics every week. He loves the drawings and the stories. He collects old comics and models of characters from comics. When he goes to markets and second-hand shops, he looks for these things. Sometimes you can sell old comics for a lot of money, but he never wants to sell his comics. Mike is ten.

Kate's hobby is collecting British and foreign coins and stamps. She's got about 2 thousand stamps and more than a hundred foreign coin. Her stamps are from about 200 countries of the world. Thanks to her hobby, Kate knows a lot about different countries. When her friends go on holiday abroad, they send her postcards with exotic stamps on them. Kate is 11 years old.
