

I. READING

Steve lives in a small village in Wales not far from Hay-on-Wye. He lives in a farmhouse with his parents, twin sister and two brothers. Steve is eleven years old. His brother Luke is nine and John is thirteen. His sister's name is Jessica.

Steve's parents are farmers. They have got a lot of sheep and cows. They have also got four goats and two ponies. Their sheepdog is beautiful and helps to guard the farm and animals. Steve and his brothers often help his parents at their work. They often milk the cows and feed the goats.

Steve usually gets up at quarter to seven. They work for an hour and they have breakfast at eight o'clock. Then they go to school. They start lessons at nine o'clock. Every day they have six lessons. Jessica and her brothers come back home after four o'clock. They do their homework and play ball in the garden together. After family dinner at half past six, the children play computer games or watch TV. Steve sometimes likes reading fairy tales before he goes to bed. He usually goes to sleep about ten o'clock.
