

I. READING

Sammy lives near the Okavango Delta in Botswana, Africa. The Okavango Delta is a large area of water. There's a natural park surrounding the delta. It's a beautiful place, and thousands of tourists visit it every year. People come to see the animals in the park, including elephants, lions, monkeys, giraffes and lots more.

Sammy lives in a house near the park, with his parents. Most children go to school by bus or car, but Sammy takes a hovercraft to his school or he sometimes cycles along the delta. Sammy's school is on the other side of the delta.

One day he saw an elephant in his garden! It was very friendly, and he gave it some food to eat. Sammy's dad is a doctor, and he uses the hovercraft to visit all his patients who live along the delta. His mother is a nurse, she helps his dad. Sammy sometimes goes with them on visits. Sammy wants to become a teacher when he grows up. Sammy has got a brother, he's 23 and he's a police officer. Now he lives in Gabarone. This is the capital of Botswana.

Sammy loves school. He likes maths, biology and geography, but his favourite subject is science. He doesn't like art or history. In his free time he likes to read and listen to music, he also plays football with his friends every Friday. He joined the team last year. They have a match every Saturday afternoon. Sammy never plays rugby.
